

NaNoWriMo

Join Evergreen Park Public Library for National Novel Writing Month, and challenge yourself to write your very own 50,000 word Novel this November. This quick-links guide should help get you started.

- Check out these podcasts to learn more about NaNoWriMo:
 - I Should Be Writing - NaNoWriMo Is Marathon Training
 - Rebel Author Podcast - NaNoWriMo for Indie Authors with Grant Faulkner
- Use these generators to get your creative juices flowing when you're feeling stumped:
 - Archetype • Genre • Name • Meet-Cute • Prompt
- Understanding different Story Structures can help guide the path of narration as you write:
 - Freytag's Pyramid
 - Hero's Journey
 - Heroine's Journey
 - Hollywood Formula
 - Kurt Vonnegut, Shape of Stories
- When your ideas are flowing, but you aren't sure how to make them come to life:
 - Grammar • Exercises
 - Outlines • Characters
 - Dialogue
 - Writing Science in Fiction
 - Writing Science Fiction and Fantasy
 - Udemy \(search for Free Classes\)
 - Writing Excuses Podcast Season 10
 - How to Make Your Writing Funny
- Grounding your writing in reality? These should help with research:
 - The Art Institute of Chicago
 - Field Museum
 - Chicago History Museum
 - Illinois Digital Archives
 - The MET Digital Collections
 - American Museum of Natural History
 - The Smithsonian Digital Collections
 - Natural History Museum Digital Collections
 - Local History
 - Genealogy
- Take your masterpiece to the next level:
 - Inkie • Writers Helping Writers
- Other Resources & Events
 - EPPL Word Count Calendar
 - EPPL Online Resources
 - EPPL NaNoWriMo Events
 - Create an account with NaNoWriMo
 - Add EPPLibrary as a Writing Buddy
 - Join our online Writing Group

